

The Technical Project Management department is responsible for the coordination of development activities of the serial car projects, ensures adherence to time schedule and financial goals of projects, covers and issues basic project documents, shields the certification, and manages the technical standards in the area of technical development.

Internship - Analysis and process costs optimalization statistics by SKODA

Job description

- Participation on proces
- Analysis of product costs optimalization
- Conversion of outputs of analysis into the presentation
- Support of running projects
- Work in PKO DATABANK system (trainee will be trained)

We require

- Studies on a daily basis at the University or College of Business (technical, economy)
- Knowledge of German language on communicative level (German level – B1)
- Knowledge of English language on basic level (English level – A2)
- Availability to stay for a 6 months period
- MS Office, MS Windows and internet knowledge
- 2-3 days a week working attendance (in accordance with the head supervisor)
- Driver license group B
- Reliability, independence

We offer

- Hour wage 60,- to 80,- CZK (depends on the level of studies)
- Subsidized meal
- Accommodation availability at the ŠKODA AUTO dormitory
- Flexible working hours (in accordance with the internship /thesis head supervisor)
- Possible farther co-operation with the final thesis (in accordance with the head supervisor)
- Work location in ŠKODA Mladá Boleslav

Contact

Recruitment centre Mladá Boleslav
Šárka Šimůnková, sarka.simunkova@skoda-auto.cz

How to apply

For job application use Apply button and continue with registration (new applicant) or login (registered applicant) to recruiting system.

Reference code: 15P375TRP/03